Becker Gov Recall

Every question from your bank (Q2–Q32), arranged as a 15-minute recall drill. Question 1 was not in your bank, so it is not here. Q7 is split into the full list plus one entry per grievance (7a–7f).

How to use this PDF

1. Read a round's answer page for about 45 seconds. Say each hook out loud.
2. Turn the page. The next page has only the questions. Answer each one out loud, then write keywords on the lines.
3. Check against the answer page. Circle anything you missed or only half got.
4. Retest your circled questions at the start of the next round before reading new material.
5. Final blitz: answer all 31 cold, with no part counts. Then fill in the tracker on the last page.

15-minute plan

Starts at	Round	Questions
0:00	R1 · Roots & ideas	2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 10
1:30	R2 · Road to revolution	7, 8, 9, 12
4:30	R3 · Articles era	11, 13, 14, 15
7:00	R4 · Ratification fight	16, 17, 18
8:30	R5 · Dividing power	19, 20, 21, 22, 23, 24, 25
11:00	R6 · Elastic clause & courts	26, 27, 28, 29, 30, 31, 32
12:30	Final blitz	All 31, misses first

Biggest date conflict: McCulloch v. Maryland was decided in 1819. Your original class notes say 1824, which is the year of Gibbons v. Ogden. Ask Mr. Becker which date he key uses. Trick: Money (the bank, 1819) before Boats (steamboats, 1824).

Interactive version with a timer and automatic retesting: claude.ai/artifact/6abpwA8fPrZxzWN6rYtgv3

ROUND 1 · READ FOR ABOUT 45 SECONDS · 1:30 BUDGET

Roots & ideas · Answers

Q2 Self-government / representative government
- Mayflower Compact
- Virginia House of Burgesses
- New England town meetings

Hook: "My Very Town": Mayflower, Virginia, Town meetings.

Q3 Declaration of Independence key principles
- Consent of the governed
- Natural rights

Hook: C + N: government needs your consent; you are born with rights.

Q4 John Locke's ideas
- Social contract
- People are born with natural rights (life, liberty, pursuit of happiness)
- Governments are formed to protect those rights
- People can change a government that fails to protect them
- His ideas inspired revolutions

Hook: Born with → Protect → Change → Revolutions.

Class vs. history: Locke actually wrote "life, liberty, and property." Your class material says pursuit of happiness, so write the class version.

Q5 Republican form of government
- A democracy
- Leaders are elected

Hook: Republic = we Re-elect our leaders.

Q6 Natural rights
- Life
- Liberty
- Pursuit of happiness

Hook: L-L-P. Same three that live inside Locke (Q4).

Q10 Tradition of self-government before 1763
- British Salutary Neglect
- Britain did not enforce mercantilist policies or the Navigation Acts

Hook: Salutary = "healthy" neglect. Britain looked away, so colonies ran themselves. Its END is grievance 7a.

ROUND 1 · CLOSED BOOK · SAY IT, THEN WRITE IT

Roots & ideas · Recall

Retest first: _____ (circled misses from earlier rounds)

Q4 Explain John Locke's ideas. (5 parts)

Q5 What is a republican form of government? (2 parts)

Q10 What gave the colonies a tradition of self-government before 1763? What did it mean? (2 parts)

Q2 What three things contributed to self-government and representative government in the colonies? (3 parts)

Q6 What are the natural rights? (3 parts)

Q3 What are the two key principles of the Declaration of Independence? (2 parts)

ROUND 2 · READ FOR ABOUT 45 SECONDS · 3:00 BUDGET

Road to revolution · Answers

Q7 Colonial grievances (the list)

- End of Salutary Neglect
- Proclamation of 1763
- Sugar Act of 1763
- Quartering Act of 1765
- Stamp Act of 1765
- Tea Act of 1773

Hook: "Salty Pirates Sell Quarters, Stamps & Tea." Salutary, Proclamation, Sugar, Quartering, Stamp, Tea.

Q7a End of Salutary Neglect

- After 1763 Britain enforced the Navigation Acts
- It hurt the colonial economy
- It seemed unfair after about 100 years of non-enforcement

Hook: 100 years of looking away, then suddenly enforcing.

Q7b Proclamation of 1763

- Banned settlement west of the colonies
- Seen as a plot to keep the colonies weak

Hook: A line on the map: stay EAST.

Class vs. history: "Plot to keep the colonies weak" is how your class material frames it. Britain's stated reason was avoiding conflict with Native nations. Write the class answer.

Q7c Sugar Act of 1763

- Anti-smuggling rules
- English judges instead of American juries
- Bonuses for guilty verdicts

Hook: Sugar = Smuggling, Judges, Bonuses. A sweet deal for the judges.

Class vs. history: Historically passed in 1764. Your class material says 1763.

Q7d Quartering Act of 1765

- Colonists had to provide housing for British soldiers

Hook: Quarters = living quarters.

Q7e Stamp Act of 1765

- Taxed goods and documents produced or used in the colonies
- Taxation without representation

Hook: STAMP = paper tax → "no taxation without representation." Tea is favoritism, not this.

Q7f Tea Act of 1773

- It favored an English tea company over American businesses

Hook: Tea = teacher's pet. Britain favored its own company. Not a "no representation" tax complaint.

Q8 Lexington and Concord

- 1775
- First shots between British and colonial troops
- Colonial Minutemen

Hook: L & C = first shots, '75, Minutemen.

Q9 Common Sense

- Thomas Paine's pamphlet
- January 1776
- Used persuasive arguments for independence
- Helped build public support

Hook: Paine's pamphlet = the PR campaign for independence.

Q12 Foreign aid

- France
- Crucial military aid to win independence

Hook: France = the friend.

ROUND 2 · CLOSED BOOK · SAY IT, THEN WRITE IT

Road to revolution · Recall

Retest first: _____ (circled misses from earlier rounds)

Q7e What did the Stamp Act of 1765 do, and what was the grievance? (2 parts)

Q12 Which country gave the colonies foreign aid, and what kind? (2 parts)

Q7c What did the Sugar Act of 1763 do that angered colonists? (3 parts)

Q7d What did the Quartering Act of 1765 require? (1 part)

Q7f Why did the Tea Act of 1773 anger colonists? (1 part)

Q8 What happened at Lexington and Concord, and when? (3 parts)

Q7b What did the Proclamation of 1763 do, and how did colonists see it? (2 parts)

Q9 What was Common Sense and why did it matter? (4 parts)

Q7a Why did the end of Salutary Neglect anger the colonists? (3 parts)

Q7 Name all six colonial grievances against the King, in order. (6 parts)

ROUND 3 · READ FOR ABOUT 45 SECONDS · 2:30 BUDGET

Articles era · Answers

Q11 Articles of Confederation formation

- Formed in 1776
- To help win the war against England
- Independence won in 1781

Hook: '76 start, '81 win.

Class vs. history: Historically the Articles were drafted in 1777 and ratified in 1781; Yorktown was 1781 and the peace treaty 1783. Use your class dates.

Q13 Land Ordinance 1785 & Northwest Ordinance 1787

- Guidelines for organizing new states from new land
- Northwest Ordinance banned slavery in the Northwest Territory
- Gave protections like an early bill of rights

Hook: '85 lays out the land; '87 makes it free and rights-protected.

Q14 Seven weaknesses of the Articles

- Could not tax
- Could not adequately pay the army
- Could not regulate interstate or foreign commerce
- No executive branch / president
- No federal court system
- Needed 9 of 13 states to pass laws
- Needed all 13 states to amend

Hook: No Money, No Army pay, No Trade, No Boss, No Judge, 9 to pass, 13 to change.

Q15 Shays' Rebellion

- 1787
- Massachusetts farmers led by Daniel Shays
- Closed courthouses to resist debt foreclosures
- Government had no effective national military to respond
- Convinced many that a stronger central government was needed

Hook: Broke farmers → shut the courts → no army to stop them → need a stronger government.

Class vs. history: The rebellion began in 1786 and ended in 1787. Your class material says 1787.

ROUND 3 · CLOSED BOOK · SAY IT, THEN WRITE IT

Articles era · Recall

Retest first: _____ (circled misses from earlier rounds)

Q15 What was Shays' Rebellion and what did it prove? (5 parts)

Q11 When and why were the Articles of Confederation formed? When was independence won? (3 parts)

Q14 List the seven weaknesses of the Articles of Confederation. (7 parts)

Q13 What did the Land Ordinance of 1785 and the Northwest Ordinance of 1787 do? (3 parts)

ROUND 4 · READ FOR ABOUT 45 SECONDS · 1:30 BUDGET

Ratification fight · Answers

Q16 Federalists vs. Anti-Federalists

- Federalists supported the Constitution
- Anti-Federalists opposed it

Hook: ANTI = against the Constitution.

Q17 Federalist arguments

- Checks and balances and separation of powers prevent abuses
- Problems can be fixed through elections and amendments
- Representatives chosen by voters will make informed decisions

Hook: Federalists run it like a CEO: Checks, Elections/amendments, Officials informed.

Q18 Anti-Federalist arguments

- The national government could favor certain states or groups
- A large nation makes it hard to understand local needs
- No Bill of Rights risked abusive laws (like criminalizing criticism of government)

Hook: Anti-Feds fear a FLaB government: Favoritism, Large/Local, Bill of Rights missing.

ROUND 4 · CLOSED BOOK · SAY IT, THEN WRITE IT

Ratification fight · Recall

Retest first: _____ (circled misses from earlier rounds)

Q18 What were the three Anti-Federalist arguments against the Constitution? (3 parts)

Q17 What were the three Federalist arguments for the Constitution? (3 parts)

Q16 What is the difference between Federalists and Anti-Federalists? (2 parts)

ROUND 5 · READ FOR ABOUT 45 SECONDS · 2:30 BUDGET

Dividing power · Answers

Q19 Federalism
- Division of power between state governments and the national government

Hook: Federalism = splitting the pie between national and state.

Q20 Delegated powers
- Powers assigned to the national government
- Maintain an army and navy
- Declare war
- Coin money
- Regulate interstate and foreign trade
- Make laws necessary and proper

Hook: WAR, COIN, TRADE + N&P: things that need one voice for the whole country. INTERstate = national.

Q21 Reserved powers
- Powers not delegated to the national government, kept by the states
- Conduct elections
- Establish schools
- Regulate intrastate trade
- Establish local governments
- Regulate marriage and divorce

Hook: States SMILE: Schools, Marriage/divorce, Intrastate trade, Local government, Elections. INTRAstate = inside one state.

Q22 Purpose of the Bill of Rights
- The first ten amendments
- Limit national government power
- Protect individual liberties and rights from government abuse

Hook: First 10 = a leash on the national government + a shield for people.

Q23 Tenth Amendment
- Powers not delegated to the national government nor prohibited to the states
- Are reserved to the states or the people

Hook: 10th = POWERS → states. It is the legal basis for reserved powers (Q21).

Q24 Ninth Amendment
- Listing certain rights in the Constitution
- Does not mean other rights retained by the people don't exist

Hook: 9th = RIGHTS. Nine sounds like "mine": unlisted rights are still mine.

Q25 Concurrent powers
- Powers held by both state and federal governments
- Enforce laws
- Establish courts
- Borrow money
- Build roads
- Collect taxes

Hook: Both levels BRACE for Taxes: Borrow, Roads, Courts, Enforce laws + Taxes.

ROUND 5 · CLOSED BOOK · SAY IT, THEN WRITE IT

Dividing power · Recall

Retest first: _____ (circled misses from earlier rounds)

Q25 What are concurrent powers? Give the examples. (6 parts)

Q22 What was the purpose of the Bill of Rights? (3 parts)

Q20 What are delegated powers? Give the examples. (6 parts)

Q19 What is federalism? (1 part)

Q24 What does the Ninth Amendment say? (2 parts)

Q21 What are reserved powers? Give the examples. (6 parts)

Q23 What does the Tenth Amendment say? (2 parts)

ROUND 6 · READ FOR ABOUT 45 SECONDS · 1:30 BUDGET

Elastic clause & courts · Answers

Q26 Elastic Clause

- Also called the Necessary and Proper Clause
- Lets Congress make laws necessary and proper to carry out its listed powers
- Supports implied federal powers

Hook: Elastic = stretches listed powers into implied powers.

Q27 Effect of the Elastic Clause

- Made the federal government more able to deal with changing circumstances

Hook: Stretch = adapt to change.

Q28 McCulloch v. Maryland

- 1819
- Supreme Court case interpreting the Necessary and Proper (Elastic) Clause

Hook: Money before Boats: McCulloch 1819, then Gibbons 1824.

Class vs. history: Your original class notes say 1824. McCulloch was decided in 1819; 1824 is Gibbons v. Ogden. Ask Mr. Becker which date his key uses.

Q29 McCulloch v. Maryland ruling

- The national government could establish a national bank
- Even though the Constitution does not mention a bank

Hook: McCulloch → Money → Bank.

Q30 Loose vs. strict interpretation

- Loose: allows implied powers beyond the listed examples
- Strict: reads federal powers narrowly (only what is listed)
- McCulloch v. Maryland = loose / broad interpretation

Hook: Loose = elastic stretches. Strict = only what is written.

Q31 Interstate Commerce Clause

- Gives the federal government power to regulate commerce between states
- Read broadly to cover economic activity that affects interstate commerce

Hook: INTER = between states = federal. Nationwide business rules are examples of it, not the clause itself.

Q32 Gibbons v. Ogden

- 1824
- Case about steamboat commerce
- Interpreted federal interstate-commerce power broadly
- Supported national power

Hook: Gibbons = Gliding steamboats, 1824, commerce → national power.

ROUND 6 · CLOSED BOOK · SAY IT, THEN WRITE IT

Elastic clause & courts · Recall

Retest first: _____ (circled misses from earlier rounds)

Q28 What was McCulloch v. Maryland, and when was it decided? (2 parts)

Q31 What is the Interstate Commerce Clause? (2 parts)

Q27 What was the effect of the Elastic Clause? (1 part)

Q29 What did the Supreme Court rule in McCulloch v. Maryland? (2 parts)

Q26 What is the Elastic Clause? (3 parts)

Q30 What is the difference between loose and strict interpretation? Which one does McCulloch reflect? (3 parts)

Q32 What was Gibbons v. Ogden, and when was it decided? (4 parts)

FINAL BLITZ · ALL 31 QUESTIONS · NO PART COUNTS

Final blitz

Answer every question cold, in this mixed order. Do your circled misses first. This is closest to the real test.

Q29 What did the Supreme Court rule in McCulloch v. Maryland?

Q7c What did the Sugar Act of 1763 do that angered colonists?

Q2 What three things contributed to self-government and representative government in the colonies?

Q23 What does the Tenth Amendment say?

Q26 What is the Elastic Clause?

Q3 What are the two key principles of the Declaration of Independence?

Q25 What are concurrent powers? Give the examples.

Q7a Why did the end of Salutary Neglect anger the colonists?

Q16 What is the difference between Federalists and Anti-Federalists?

Q5 What is a republican form of government?

Q7d What did the Quartering Act of 1765 require?

Q14 List the seven weaknesses of the Articles of Confederation.

Q10 What gave the colonies a tradition of self-government before 1763? What did it mean?

Q28 What was McCulloch v. Maryland, and when was it decided?

Q32 What was Gibbons v. Ogden, and when was it decided?

Q22 What was the purpose of the Bill of Rights?

Q8 What happened at Lexington and Concord, and when?

Q7 Name all six colonial grievances against the King, in order.

Q27 What was the effect of the Elastic Clause?

Q15 What was Shays' Rebellion and what did it prove?

Q24 What does the Ninth Amendment say?

Q13 What did the Land Ordinance of 1785 and the Northwest Ordinance of 1787 do?

Q18 What were the three Anti-Federalist arguments against the Constitution?

Q17 What were the three Federalist arguments for the Constitution?

Q11 When and why were the Articles of Confederation formed? When was independence won?

Q30 What is the difference between loose and strict interpretation? Which one does McCulloch reflect?

Q19 What is federalism?

Q7b What did the Proclamation of 1763 do, and how did colonists see it?

Q4 Explain John Locke's ideas.

Q31 What is the Interstate Commerce Clause?

Q6 What are the natural rights?

Q12 Which country gave the colonies foreign aid, and what kind?

Q9 What was Common Sense and why did it matter?

Q7e What did the Stamp Act of 1765 do, and what was the grievance?

Q7f Why did the Tea Act of 1773 anger colonists?

Q20 What are delegated powers? Give the examples.

Q21 What are reserved powers? Give the examples.

MIXED-UP PAIRS

Traps that get confused

Delegated vs. Reserved vs. Concurrent
Delegated = national only (War, Coin, Trade, N&P). Reserved = states only (SMILE). Concurrent = both (BRACE + Taxes).

9th vs. 10th Amendment
9th = RIGHTS the people keep even if unlisted. 10th = POWERS not delegated go to the states or the people.

Federalists vs. Anti-Federalists
Federalists FOR the Constitution (CEO). Anti-Federalists AGAINST (FLaB).

Stamp Act vs. Tea Act
Stamp (1765) = tax on paper → taxation without representation. Tea (1773) = favored an English company over American businesses.

Salutary Neglect (Q10) vs. its end (Q7a)
Q10: neglect BEFORE 1763 built self-government. Q7a: enforcement AFTER 1763 hurt the economy and felt unfair.

McCulloch vs. Gibbons
McCulloch 1819 = Necessary & Proper → national bank. Gibbons 1824 = steamboats → interstate commerce. Money before Boats.

Strict vs. loose
Strict = only listed powers. Loose = implied powers too (elastic). McCulloch = loose.

Interstate vs. intrastate
INTERstate trade = between states = national (Q20, Q31). INTRAstate trade = inside one state = reserved to states (Q21).

Where your class material and history differ

Write the class answer on the test unless Mr. Becker says otherwise.

Q4 Locke actually wrote "life, liberty, and property." Your class material says pursuit of happiness, so write the class version.

Q7b "Plot to keep the colonies weak" is how your class material frames it. Britain's stated reason was avoiding conflict with Native nations. Write the class answer.

Q7c Historically passed in 1764. Your class material says 1763.

Q11 Historically the Articles were drafted in 1777 and ratified in 1781; Yorktown was 1781 and the peace treaty 1783. Use your class dates.

Q15 The rebellion began in 1786 and ended in 1787. Your class material says 1787.

Q28 Your original class notes say 1824. McCulloch was decided in 1819; 1824 is Gibbons v. Ogden. Ask Mr. Becker which date his key uses.

COVERAGE · Q2–Q32

Recall tracker

Mark each attempt: ✓ all parts · ~ partial · ✗ missed. A question is solid only after two ✓ in a row from memory. Having read the answer does not count.

Q	Topic	Try 1	Try 2	Try 3
2	Self-government / representative government
3	Declaration of Independence key principles
4	John Locke's ideas
5	Republican form of government
6	Natural rights
7	Colonial grievances (list + 7a–7f)
8	Lexington and Concord
9	Common Sense
10	Tradition of self-government before 1763
11	Articles of Confederation formation
12	Foreign aid
13	Land Ordinance 1785 & Northwest Ordinance 1787
14	Seven weaknesses of the Articles
15	Shays' Rebellion
16	Federalists vs. Anti-Federalists
17	Federalist arguments
18	Anti-Federalist arguments
19	Federalism
20	Delegated powers
21	Reserved powers
22	Purpose of the Bill of Rights
23	Tenth Amendment
24	Ninth Amendment
25	Concurrent powers
26	Elastic Clause
27	Effect of the Elastic Clause
28	McCulloch v. Maryland
29	McCulloch v. Maryland ruling
30	Loose vs. strict interpretation
31	Interstate Commerce Clause
32	Gibbons v. Ogden			